Southeast Asia – The Mekong River	The Mekong River winds its way from the Tibetan plateaus of China's Yunnan province, through the rainforests, plains and rice fields of five Southeast Asian countries before meeting the South China Sea. In terms of length, it's the 12th largest river in the world, but in terms of historic, cultural and ecological richness-the Mekong has no equal. The sagas of ancient empires, colonial powers and modern conflicts have unfolded along her banks. And, through it all, the Mekong remains first and foremost a lifeline. Temples, trade routes and fishing villages in the river's path are today untouched by time, just as the way of life they represent. And nowhere are the river's riches more apparent than in the neighboring-but distinct countries-of Vietnam and Cambodia. AMAWaterways have two vacation options here: Vietnam, Cambodia & the Riches of the Mekong 15 Days - Spend 2 nights in Hanoi, overnight in Ha Long Bay, then travel to Siem Reap for a 3-night stay before embarking on your Mekong River cruise, ending your journey with an overnight stay in Ho Chi Minh City (Saigon) Vietnam, Cambodia & the Riches of the Mekong (Cruise Only) 8 Days - Enjoy a 7-night Mekong river cruise through Vietnam & Cambodia Your journey begins with Vietnam's bustling capital, Hanoi, followed by an excursion to fabled Ha Long Bay. Said to be the lair of dragons, the Bay's limestone outcroppings provide a breathtaking setting for an overnight sojourn. The next day, a short flight to Siem Reap, Cambodia, brings you to the gateway of the largest ancient city in the world. Explore

And, small ships virtually eliminate the hassles of travel. Getting on and off the vessel is effortless, with docking in the very center of the action of each destination or port, and sightseeing is often much less crowded, in places where there are few other visitors. For more information on or to reserve your cruise, visit your local CAA Store or www.caasco.com/rivercruising or call 1-800-992-8143
